P123	The sovereignty of God and the advancement of God's kingdom If God is sovereign and His reign extends over all creation, why is there a need to participate in and contribute to the advancement of God's kingdom? Is the sovereignty of God and the reign of God at this juncture of the fulfilment of God's purposes absolute? Could God have disallowed all the terrible consequences of rebellion, sin and moral darkness to take place? Does it mean, having created moral beings resulting in the rebellion of Satan and the fallen angels and fallen men living in the fallen world, God could not have disallowed all the terrible consequences that have taken place and continue to take place? Was God aware the rebellion and all the terrible consequences that have taken place would take place even before He created moral beings? Yes. The mystery and how God's purposes are to be expressed and accomplished - is in and through the birth and growth of the church and the expression of church life/body-life - the centrality of the role of the church. 2. P238	The centrality of the role of the church in the fulfilment of God's purposes 3. The central theme running through Paul's epistles is the growth of the church and how believers and church life ought to work out - and accomplish God's purposes. 4. The role of the church and how God wants church life to function are part of the core centre of the mystery. 5. We are not called to learn, grow and serve in isolation but together with the brethren in the expression of body-life. 6. God has placed each one of us in the body just as He desired. 7. ## The big picture

P246	Some observations on the subject of: the mystery, the church and the fulfilment of God's purposes Helpful to see how the various aspects of the Christian life fit into the big picture - in the light of the revelation of the mystery, our response to God's call and the fulfilment of God's purposes. Ephesians is a key book in the Scriptures giving us such a big picture - an integrated approach to our Christian walk with God at the personal level and together in the expression of church life. The revelation of the mystery in N.T. times began with the Lord Jesus - revealing the mysteries of God's kingdom. The kingdom of God is a major theme in the Scriptures, especially the N.T. - and in the preaching, teaching and ministry of the Lord Jesus - and also the preaching and teaching of Paul.	20 Jan 19	1h 10m
P247	Stewardship of the mystery Stewardship of the mystery, preaching Christ, transmitting the gospel, spreading the faith, proclamation of the word and preaching the kingdom of God cover and flow forth from the same core area of truth - what has been in the heart of God before the foundation of the world - God's eternal purpose and how He desires to accomplish it - what the apostle Paul concentrated on in his ministry - the substance and core centre of true ministry - for all who live during this phase of the fulfilment of God's purposes - under the New Covenant - to be effective witnesses to the truth - through word and deed - the good news of God's intentions for us in Christ - by working at it with perseverance in the context of the expression of church life - according to God's revelation in the Scriptures.	17 Feb 19	1h 11min
P248	The Lord Jesus teaching and proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom What ought to be the primary concerns and longing of our hearts reflected in the pattern prayer: 'Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. P249	The meaning of the prayer request in Acts 4:29 to speak the word of God with all confidence - and God's answer in Acts 4:31 The mystery, Christ, the gospel, the faith, the word and the kingdom of God are key expressions and major themes in the Scriptures. They flow forth from the same core area of truth - what has been in the heart of God before the foundation of the world - the mystery - God's eternal purpose and how He desires to accomplish it. This is the central message of the Scriptures. Our approach to life, priorities, values, perspective, how we view situations and make decisions - ought to flow forth from this core area of truth. Appreciating this area of truth and the meaning and relationship between the various expressions can help us see different shades of meaning and richer meaning in various verses/passages e.g. the meaning of what was entrusted to Paul and the ministry of Paul - to fully carry out the word of God: Col. 1:25; the meaning of believers in Acts 8:4: preaching the word. In this message we continue to look at other examples in Acts e.g. the potential of richness of meaning of the prayer request of the believers in Acts 4:29 - to speak the word of God with all confidence - and the meaning of God's answer to their prayer request in Acts 4:31	14 Apr 19	1h 05min
P250	Meaning of Acts 20:24: Paul devoting his life to fulfil the ministry entrusted to him by the Lord Jesus - to testify solemnly of the gospel of the grace of God Paul uses various expressions to describe the content of his ministry - which covers the core area of truth: Jesus Christ and Him crucified: 1 Cor.2:2; the gospel of the grace of God: Acts20:24	12 May 19	1h 11min

They can help us form strong convictions of the foundational aspects of our faith and our walk with God - firmly grounded in the Scriptures - what ought to be our approach to life, what we should concentrate on, our priorities - the appropriate response to God's call - our mission on earth.	1 Sep 19	1h 07min

P255	The Great Commission?  What is our mission on earth?            What has the Lord entrusted to us?            What should we concentrate on and what ought to be the core centre of what motivates us during our time on earth?            What is the biblical revelation on this area of truth?            The understanding of believers of our mission on earth and what the Lord has entrusted to us is usually too narrow.            Biblical revelation, presentation is wider, deeper, richer in meaning - and there are significant implications - in approach and emphasis in outworking and seeking to fulfil what the Lord desires of us.            We have been considering the life and ministry of the apostle Paul - as a good example for every believer. We've seen Paul's understanding of what God had entrusted to him - his mission on earth - and how Paul devoted his life to be a trustworthy steward of the mystery.	29 Sep 19	1h 13min
P256	The Great Commission? (2)  What is the meaning of the key verses often referred to as the basis for understanding the Great Commission: Mat.28:18-20 and Acts 1:8? How did the apostles/disciples go about fulfilling the words/instructions of the Lord Jesus - as recorded for us in the book of Acts?	29 Oct 19	1h 19min
P257	The ministry of the Lord Jesus  The Lord Jesus Christ preached the gospel and drew men to Himself - and they were to pay heed to His words and obey Him. A central theme in His teaching and preaching is revelation of Himself - and how men ought to respond to Him and receive Him. Even during His earthly ministry, the Lord Jesus was laying the foundation for the birth and growth of the church - through His preaching and teaching - culminating with His death, resurrection and ascension and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. He has declared: I will build My church.	24 Nov 19	1h 11min
P258	Insights of and revelation to the apostle John and the goal of his ministry  The apostle John has deep appreciation and insight into the life and ministry of the Lord Jesus and His role in the fulfilment of God's purposes. His writings and ministry complement the writings and ministry of the apostle Paul and the ministry of the Lord Jesus - each one fulfilling the part God desires of them in the accomplishment of God's purposes. 1 John 1:1-4 tells us the content and goal of his ministry - essentially the same as the ministry of Paul and the Lord Jesus - they complement one another - in fulfilling what has been in the heart of God - and what ought to be in our hearts, what motivates us, what has been entrusted to us, our mission on earth.	22 Dec 19	1h 09min
